International Data Links Society Election Process

1. The notification of Election for posts on the General Committee will be announced at the Annual Meeting of Members.
2. The next IDLSoc Newsletter will contain a notice inviting nominations.
3. Completed nomination forms must be signed by the proposer, seconder and candidate, and must include Supporting Background Details and area of Interest of the Nominee, of not more than 1000 words. The Nomination form must be received by the IDLSoc Secretariat by the due date with an accompanying Curriculum Vitae (CV).
4. On receipt of the nomination forms, the IDLSoc Board of Directors will check that the candidate, proposer and seconder are all members of good standing and ensure the candidate meets the criteria as outlined in the Terms of Reference, or Bylaws.
5. Information on the Candidates and a voting system will be posted in the members area of the IDLSoc Website, and the online voting system will be activated for a four (4) week period beginning in March 2019.
6. At the end of the voting period, after the Society Directors and General Committee members have been notified of the results, an email will be issued, advising the Society members of who has been elected to the open positions.
7. At the conclusion of the process to fill the vacant posts, the newly elected General Committee member, and the outgoing incumbent, will agree to the length of time for the handover of responsibilities. The duration of this handover will depend upon the "General Committee" role, however, it is envisaged that it will take 3 months and will include both persons attending the next "General Committee" meeting.
8. A maximum of one-third of the General Committee posts may be put up for election in any one election period.
