

IDLSoc Membership Terms & Conditions

This document outlines terms & conditions for individual membership of the International Data Links Society.

Individual Membership Subscription Fee

Individuals can purchase a one-year subscription to the IDLSoc.

The cost of individual membership has been deliberately kept low to enable the Society to grow its membership base.

To use members' funds more efficiently, payment is only taken online.

Rates from January 6th 2014

The General Committee has set the subscription rates from January 6th 2014.

There is now only one annual subscription rate, which is discounted for renewals.

One Year IDLSoc Individual Subscription - US$ 75.00.

One Year IDLSoc Individual Subscription (Renewal) - US$ 60.00.

Members who renew their membership within the first two months of it expiring will be entitled to a US$15.00 grace period discount on the yearly fee. After these two months, the full US$75.00 fee will be required. Please remember you cannot renew your membership until you are in the Grace Period.

Terms & Conditions

- Grace Period rates are only valid for individuals renewing their subscriptions within two months of its expiry.
- Any member who resigns their membership may be subject to back dues if they wish to resume their membership in the future.
- Society privileges and benefits are subject to change.
- Membership fees are subject to change.
- The society reserves the right to refuse or rescind membership.
- The society reserves the right to add additional membership criteria.
- Payment must be made online by credit/debit card (Visa/MasterCard/American Express).

Refunds Policy

- Refunds will be made at discretion of Management.

IDLSoc Information

- The International Data Links Society is incorporated in the state of California, USA.
- The Society banks with the Bank of America.
- The Society's secretariat is based in the United Kingdom - contact details can be found on the posts and contacts page of the website.